45	I like the seating in the remodeled Life Science building. Something with comfortable seats but the option of a large table area and power access. Sometimes you need a laptop, textbook and notebook (maybe more) so being able to spread out helps. Conference rooms I think are counter productive in those settings. Usually just see groups making noise in the ones in the life science center. Could be helpful but mostly a distraction.	2/4/2021 10:20 AM
46	I think tables with chairs should be a must so students can have a space to do homework, but I also think there should be comfortable couches and chairs with ends tables so when students are there to hang out as a club they have comfortable seating.	2/4/2021 10:19 AM
47	Cushioned seating along with computer desk chairs for optimal studying areas.	2/4/2021 10:19 AM

54	There is a lot of areas already around campus that have group setting setting seating. To have it be more of a one on one or singular setting would be beneficial in my opinion	2/4/2021 9:57 AM

16	I think computers would be good to have since not everyone is able to afford their own, but it doesn't have to be in every spot since the space should allow room for people to spread out and work on big projects as well.	2/5/2021 11:19 AM
17	A computer area and outlets for students	2/5/2021 10:24 AM
18	With technology being the major connector through learning during a pandemic, continuing to have extra outlets and USB ports accessible is important, since many of our books and assignments are all digital.	2/5/2021 9:42 AM

35	I think several printers and computers would be beneficial.	2/4/2021 12:21 PM

42	Thinking of a post covid world, just convenience rather than gadgets I think would be nice. TVs, speakers, and since would be nice but easily abused? for lack of a better term. Easy access to usb/outlets for charging devices a huge plus.	2/4/2021 10:20 AM
43	Computer, TVs, smartboards	2/4/2021 10:19 AM
44	A space with a few computers, projection and speakers.	2/4/2021 10:19 AM

39	Honestly I am not sure. What I do ask is if you are going to have resources and information available, make sure it's all inclusive. Don't make it political, don't make it lean toward one group or minority over another. We are all MCCC, and we all bring something different. No one person has any more value than another.	2/4/2021 10:20 AM

#	RESPONSES	DATE
1	The resources can be displayed with bookshelves or the projectors.	2/16/2021 11:21 AM
2	Posters, flyers, a "Meet Me" type poster for study helpers with maybe a picture of each tutorer and a little bit about them to make people more comfortable knowing who they choose is a good fit for them. As well as if they choose to be apart of a group on campus they can kind of see if they are going to enjoy the company and group.	2/16/2021 11:14 AM
3	Through corkboards/posters/physical means, as well as displayed digitally on TVs/other displays	2/11/2021 11:07 AM
4	Either on the wall in holders, or on a display table.	2/11/2021 10:50 AM
5	a little office in which we can find resources	2/10/2021 10:27 PM
6	idk something easily accessible and not in front of a bunch of people	2/9/2021 1:52 PM
7	You could set up one or two TV's or a projector in the center with internet and cable access for students to enjoy, catch up on news or pull up info to display for a meeting. a couple book shelves would also be nice.	2/9/2021 1:26 PM
8	Pamphlets, website pages, posters	2/6/2021 9:25 PM
9	Spread out throughout the center at each station so no one has to b disturbed.	2/6/2021 9:51 AM
10	having a table or a wall that displays this info loudly so if someone needed to know who to contact, where to go, or about any events, they can easily spot this table/wall of info	2/5/2021 4:39 PM
11	Bookshelves lining the walls for the books, and a display rack for the pamphlets	2/5/2021 3:40 PM
12	All around the Center, and available at every end of the building.	2/5/2021 12:46 PM
13	A staff member willing to help anyone with anyone, without an attitude too. It should be a space to feel free and not judged	2/5/2021 11:19 AM
14	regarding the small Library it should be out of the way but accessible by everyone	2/5/2021 10:24 AM
15	pamphlets, cards	2/5/2021 9:15 AM
16	Information on everyone's background	2/5/2021 8:58 AM
17	For projections there could be a blank white wall instead of a pull down screen. A separate area with plexi glass dividers for computer stations.	2/4/2021 10:53 PM
18	There could be a shelf or area designated to those resources.	2/4/2021 9:29 PM
19	on a poster board and/or in a shelf system	2/4/2021 8:09 PM
20	Have hand outs or posters with that information on it, use computers	2/4/2021 7:39 PM
21	Open bookshelves and welcoming environment	2/4/2021 7:11 PM
22	The bulletin boards around the college would be good to also have in the center, as well as a little brochure case on programs, areas of study, community happenings/events, and college groups.	2/4/2021 4:22 PM
23	Books, magazines, etc.	2/4/2021 3:31 PM

24	Not applicable.	2/4/2021 3:05 PM
25	A corkboard for hanging info and flyers, as well as a rack for pamphlets. There should also be resources available in other languages by request if a student comes from a family who might not benefit from English information.	2/4/2021 2:51 PM
26	N/a	2/4/2021 2:34 PM
27	The computer i mentioned	2/4/2021 2:16 PM

29	maybe a few paper copy's and maybe a tv to be able to watch and see what is happening	2/4/2021 1:48 PM
30	Have private rooms for some computer/study zones and a separate room for events.	2/4/2021 12:39 PM
31	There could be days where students of certain clubs come to the center to inform students about their club and how to get involved. There could be sign up sheets for study groups to attend for certain subjects.	2/4/2021 11:41 AM
32	I think it would be best displayed in small group rooms. I think that would be best because people would be able to study in a secluded area with having all the resources they need in one place. By having a whiteboard in the room it allows the students to show their work to others.	2/4/2021 11:27 AM
33	A vending machine would be best displayed wherever there is room. This would accommodate the students. The table I think would be best placed by a main door. That way the information is clear to everyone entering.	2/4/2021 10:56 AM
34	I think they should all be located in one spot so that students aren't searching all over for it.	2/4/2021 10:55 AM
35	Shelf's	2/4/2021 10:50 AM
36	Maybe there could be a board to stick them to or a table to hold them	2/4/2021 10:24 AM
37	Again, I'm not sure what resources/information would be most beneficial, but make it a part of the atmosphere, not the theme.	2/4/2021 10:20 AM
38	There could be a big corkboard where students, teachers, and administrators can put things on for the upcoming events	2/4/2021 10:19 AM
39	Bulletin board, flyers, brochures	2/4/2021 10:19 AM
40	Through pamphlets or flyers to take with you	2/4/2021 10:09 AM
41	Maybe there could be a billboard, or a kiosk to access digital resources	2/4/2021 10:08 AM
42	Like a normal pamphlet rack	2/4/2021 10:06 AM
43	However you see fit	2/4/2021 9:59 AM
44	In a space where they will be returned maybe a supervisor	2/4/2021 9:59 AM
45	Include different book or educational pieces to a designated areas for each category.	2/4/2021 9:57 AM

46	The quotes could simply be on furniture,walls,glass or even have a place where people can write there own quotes to help others. Like a "quote wall" where people can put sticky notes on.	2/4/2021 9:55 AM
47	Perhaps a private office attached to the center for students to comfortably discuss their concerns with a school official.	2/4/2021 9:54 AM
48	Streaming on a monitor.	2/4/2021 9:54 AM
49	Bookshelf	2/4/2021 9:51 AM

2	N/A	2/16/2021 11:14 AM
3	Lots of color and patterns, perhaps certain themed areas (Culture, religions, sexuality, etc.) and allow students to input their own preferences/ideas through interactive means of displays like cork/whiteboards, canvases, wall chalk art, poster areas, etc.	2/11/2021 11:07 AM
4	Any group of people should be included, there should be random facts or other items posted on the walls.	2/11/2021 10:50 AM
5	Pictures of different cultures or colors displayed would be neat	2/10/2021 10:27 PM
6	anxiety and stress idk a design that is relaxing and doesn't make people feel on edge	2/9/2021 1:52 PM

8	Black art	2/7/2021 5:07 PM
9	LGBTQ+, Disability, mental health,	2/6/2021 9:25 PM
10	I would like to see help available if needed but also not pressuring help if not needed. I would like to see everyone independently or as a group be in their own zone and not be distracting to others	2/6/2021 9:51 AM
11	lively art made by students	2/5/2021 4:39 PM
12	I'm biromantic, bisexual, polyamorous, genderfluid, and autistic.	2/5/2021 3:40 PM
13	N/A	2/5/2021 12:46 PM
14	I personally struggle a lot with severenpanic attacks, dysthymia, ADD, and Dyslexia too. So being in a room filled with colors will allow students to have a more positive mind set, adding brail to things will include students that are blind too. It should be a safe space for everyone	2/5/2021 11:19 AM
15	as a female I would feel comfortable with some sort of emergency button and some sort of check in and out system	2/5/2021 10:24 AM
16	It is important to show that a person continues learning throughout their entire lifetime and that educational journeys have no end date when regarding your age or circumstance. College students vary in age and are all balancing different responsibilities. I think in showing that, it can inspire others to strive for further education at any age. I also enjoy seeing and find inspiration in educational and professional accomplishments from those who may have had to endure more speedbumps and hurdles than the average person.	2/5/2021 9:42 AM
17	unsure	2/5/2021 9:15 AM
18	I would just like to learn more about people cultures	2/5/2021 8:58 AM
19	Cultural murals, and muted calming colors on walls, furniture, decor.	2/4/2021 10:53 PM

21	any	2/4/2021 8:09 PM

22	Many people tend to make fun of redheads, so I think incorporating redheads into the design would be great	2/4/2021 7:39 PM
23	Maybe on a given night certain food is offered based on a certain culture, music based on that as well	2/4/2021 7:11 PM
24	I really like quiet areas where I can work uninterrupted or talk quietly with someone else if I have time between classes but not enough time to go home. A lot of people are also like this, so having an area just for simply working in a quiet place without distractions would benefit many.	2/4/2021 4:22 PM
25	N/A	2/4/2021 3:31 PM
26	Make it look simplistic without being drab and feeling too much like a typical office, it would need to seem welcoming for people to feel encouraged to use it.	2/4/2021 3:05 PM
27	I'd like to see a safe place for LGBTQ+ students to study or meet up in a comfortable environment. Students can easily feel very anxious and threatened in public places even when diversity is considered a goal.	2/4/2021 2:51 PM

29	Non gendered bathroom nearby.	2/4/2021 2:16 PM

31	just make sure it is calming but still a good environment to do stuff in	2/4/2021 1:48 PM
32	Historical events, good picture murals	2/4/2021 12:39 PM
33	I would like to see creativity in the center such art work representing diversity and photos of the students. I think that the clubs could have group photos hung up and the deans list or other honors could be represented throughout the center. The photos and lists could be changed regularly since the students involved varies from year to year. I think that students should have a safe place to gather and learn together. Having the actual student body represented will allow for this to happen.	2/4/2021 11:41 AM
34	I think it would be nice to see the center as vibrant and modern with it having murals or pictures of diversity.	2/4/2021 11:27 AM
35	N/A	2/4/2021 10:55 AM
36	LGBTQ+ community	2/4/2021 10:50 AM
37	I don't have any preferences	2/4/2021 10:24 AM
38	I understand racial equality is the focus lately but people are more than the color of their skin. We have military, foreign, older, younger, etc. members of this great college community. Helping people find a nice home, community groups, on campus events, etc. should definitely be something to include.	2/4/2021 10:20 AM
39	I think it should more be about being united through our differences because everyone is different in their own way.	2/4/2021 10:19 AM

49	rainbow room	2/4/2021 9:49 AM
50	allow everyone to be who they are but don't make accommodations just because it may be trendy at the moment. Don't forget about our struggling white Americans as well and our mothers.	2/4/2021 9:48 AM
