Human Resource Certification Study Program

The Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM) Certification covers the new standard for HR professionals around the globe. It is among the first HR certifications that is focused on teaching and testing the practical, real-life information that HR professionals need to excel in their careers. MCCC is pleased to offer this course that will help prepare you for the new certification. There will be two levels to the new certification: SHRM Certified Professional (SHRM-CP) and SHRM Senior Certified Professional (SHRM-SCP). This course will prepare you for the exam testing window starting in December 2015.

This traditional classroom setting is taught by local certified HR professionals for 36 contact hours covering the new content in the SHRM Body of Competency and Knowledge (BoCK).

There are no prerequisites for this course. It's ideal for anyone who wants to increase their human resource knowledge, or taking the exam for the new certification offered by SHRM. CEUs: 3.6

Legal Certificate Online Courses

You don't have to be an attorney to embark on a career in the legal industry. Corporations, law firms and governments need non-lawyers for a wide variety of administrative, research, compliance and other law-related requirements. Without the time and expense of a pursuing a full law degree, you can gain the skills needed to offer specialized legal services for these employers. To build your credentials for legal career opportunities, consider these excellent courses MCCC offers in partnership with The Center for Legal Studies.

All textbooks and resources, including Westlaw, are available for purchase by calling 1.800.522.7737 or by accessing the secure online order form at www.legalstudies.com. Please order your textbooks at least one week prior to the first session.
