

Notice of Vacancy
Monroe County Community College

Position	Early Childhood Education (ECE) Instructor, Science/Mathematics Division
Description	Provide instruction in early childhood education courses and coordinate and supervise field experiences related to the intellectual, physical, social, and emotional development of young children. The early childhood education course offerings within the division include Foundations of ECE, Child Growth and Development, Observation and Assessment of Child Development, Care and Learning of Infants and Toddlers, Diverse Populations in ECE, Care and Learning of Preschool Children, Care and Learning of School-Age Children, Nutrition, Health and Safety for ECE, Administration of a Child Care Program, and Early Childhood Education Practicum. Assist with course and program review, developing new courses, and the evaluation of student learning outcome assessments in accordance to program and national standards. Expected use of various technology-mediated techniques. As an integral member of the division, individual expected to develop effective collegial relationships, work closely with students and local employers, meet with advisory committees, and promote division programs and the college in general.
Qualifications	Minimum of a Master's Degree in Education or Child Development with a minimum of 18 semester credit hours of graduate level work in Early Childhood Education. Certification for elementary education preferred. Prior classroom experience, the ability to identify and implement assessment of student learning strategies and practice essential.
Salary	Per Master Agreement – base salary range $50,571-$62,546. Salary may be negotiated based on education and experience. Faculty contract includes 15-18 contact hours per week, 162-day school year. Spring and Summer extra-contractual teaching opportunities may be available.
Benefits	Health, dental, vision, life, and long-term disability insurance plans. Accrued sick leave, dependent tuition waiver, and retirement plan options.
Start Date	January 2, 2018
Location	Monroe County Community College has been providing a variety of post-secondary opportunities for the residents of Monroe County, Michigan since 1964. Monroe County, with a population of 157,550, offers a quality rural and urban life style well situated between Detroit, Ann Arbor, and Toledo, Ohio. Graduate study is available at the University of Toledo, Wayne State University, Eastern Michigan University, The University of Michigan, and the University of Detroit Mercy.
Deadline	Review of applications begins October 9 and continues until position filled
Application Process	Interested candidates should submit a letter of interest, resume, two letters of recommendation, transcripts (official transcripts required upon hire), and MCCC faculty employment application to Molly McCutchan; Director, Human Resources; Monroe County Community College; 1555 S. Raisinville Road; Monroe, MI 48161; mmccutchan@monroeccc.edu ; see www.monroeccc.edu/jobs for further information and faculty employment application.