FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DINGELL, STEELE TO DEBATE OCT. 20 AT MCCC

MONROE, Mich. – U.S. Rep. John Dingell (D-Dearborn) and his Republican opponent, Dr. Robert Steele, will face each other in a debate Oct. 20 at Monroe County Community College's La-Z-Boy, Meyer Theater.

The 15th Congressional District Debate will take place from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. Doors will open at 5:45 p.m.

The debate is presented by MCCC Student Government and the college's student newspaper, The Agora.

MCCC President Dr. David Nixon will serve as moderator and will choose all questions.

Prior to the debate, the audience may submit questions on cards provided by MCCC staff. All questions must be submitted by 6:15 p.m. There is no guarantee that all audience questions will be asked. Questions not asked live will be forwarded to each campaign following the debate.

The Monroe County Intermediate School District and TK Productions will videotape the event on behalf of the college.

(more)

No other cameras or audio recorders will be permitted in the La-Z-Boy Center. Media seeking video footage of the debate that evening can obtain it on site from the MCISD's mobile video production vehicle.

Media seeking video footage the following day or thereafter must request it from the MCCC Marketing Department at (734) 384-4207.

No campaign signs, literature or paraphernalia will be allowed in the La-Z-Boy Center.

The audience will be asked to reserve all reactions until the end of the debate.

Tickets are free and available on a limited basis by contacting the individual campaign offices. Dingell's campaign office can be reached at (313) 791-2707. Steele's campaign office can be reached at (517) 748-3337.
