FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

‘MCCC TRANSFER DAY AT UT’ SET FOR FRIDAY, APRIL 8

MONROE, Mich. – Monroe County Community College students considering transferring to a four-year college will have the opportunity to participate in MCCC Transfer Day at the University of Toledo on Friday, April 8.

UT representatives will be pick up students at MCCC’s Main Campus via bus and transport them to the University of Toledo campus, and, once there, the students will get to spend a day learning first-hand about UT.

MCCC students can choose one of two UT bus departure times from MCCC’s Main Campus: 8:15 a.m. or noon.

The bus will make two return trips to the MCCC Main Campus, with arrivals at noon and 4:30 p.m.

According to K.C. Bailey, admissions coordinator at UT, during their visit MCCC students will be able to:

- Apply to UT and be accepted on the spot
- Listen to a presentation on transferring to UT
- Learn about scholarship opportunities

(more)

- Meet with a transfer advisor for an evaluation of credits
- Change their code for the Free Application for Federal Student Aid and get questions answered from the Financial Aid Office
- Get set up for access to the “myUT” portal for registration for orientation, housing, placement tests and the ability to check on financial aid (if already accepted to UT)
- Take mini-tours of campus
- Meet with ROTC
- Spend the day at the UT Recreation Center for free
- Participate/attend other UT-sponsored events
- Receive free UT “swag”
- Get 15 percent of all purchases at the UT Bookstore

Students who wish to participate should RSVP in person with MCCC’s Admissions and Guidance Office or (734) 384-4104.
