FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

AUTHOR, RESEARCHER ON THE HOLOCAUST TO SPEAK AT WHITMAN CENTER

MONROE, Mich. – On Oct. 27, Charles Weinblatt, an author and researcher on the Holocaust, will speak about the topic at the Whitman Center.

Weinblatt's historical novel, "Jacob's Courage," tells the fictional story of two young Jewish adults living in Austria at the time of the Nazi invasion and their fight for survival throughout the Holocaust.

He began researching the topic after discovering that most of his maternal extended family had been killed because of the tragedy.

The presentation will begin at 7 p.m. in Whitman Center room 4, located at 7777 Lewis Ave., Temperance. It is free and open to the public.

In addition to Weinblatt's presentation, the Whitman Center is hosting an exhibit throughout October titled "Dr. Seuss Wants You," from the Center for Holocaust and Humanity Education in Cincinnati.

Aside from writing children's books, Theodore Seuss Geisel created over 400 editorial cartoons expressing his concern over the Holocaust and World War II.

The display can be viewed from 8 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday and 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Friday.
