FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MCCC AWARDS THE ALTRUSA INTERNATIONAL OF MONROE SCHOLARSHIP

MONROE, Mich. – Monroe County Community College has awarded the Altrusa International of Monroe Scholarship to Paula Couture of Maybee.

Couture graduated high school in 1980 and is now studying to become an administrative professional at MCCC. She has served as a writing fellow at the college during the fall 2010 semester, the winter 2011 semester, and will again this fall. She has received the writing fellow scholarships for all three semesters.

She has volunteered as a 4-H leader for the past ten years and has participated with Dundee Community Schools Helping Hands. She is married to Eric Couture and has a daughter, Mirissa Couture, who dual-enrolled at MCCC during her senior year and is now attending Eastern Michigan University.

To be eligible for this scholarship, a student must present financial need and good academic service, reside in Monroe County and be active in community service. Additionally, the applicant must be seeking education in order to return to the workforce.
