WHITMAN CENTER CELEBRATES 20 YEARS OF SERVICE

MONROE – Twenty years after Monroe County Community College opened the Whitman Center in Temperance, the facility remains a convenient place for students in southern Monroe County, southeastern Lenawee County and northern Lucas County to pursue higher education.

In celebration of the milestone, the Whitman Center will host a reception featuring refreshments and entertainment on Wed., Oct. 19 from 5-8 p.m.

Throughout the past two decades, the Whitman Center has offered a wide variety of credit and lifelong learning classes, customized training for business and industry, and displays and presentations on culturally and historically significant topics.

The reception is free and open to the public. The Whitman Center is located at 7777 Lewis Ave. in Temperance.

For more information, call (734) 847-0559.
