FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ATLANTA RHYTHM SECTION TO PLAY LA-Z-BOY CENTER ON FEB. 10

Classic Tracks ‘Imaginary Lover’ and ‘Spooky’ Among Band’s String of Hits

MONROE, Mich. – The Atlanta Rhythm Section – a part of the southern rock scene for more than 30 years – will perform at the Monroe County Community College’s La-Z-Boy Center, Meyer Theater at 7:30 p.m. on Feb. 10.

The La-Z-Boy Center is located on MCCC’s Main Campus at 1555 S. Raisinville Rd.

The Atlanta Rhythm Section represents all of the good things that the phrase “classic rock” implies, with a little twist.

The band’s sound is labeled as southern rock, but most of its songs tend to be softer and pop-influenced. The style of Atlanta Rhythm section can be compared to bands such as Fleetwood Mac, Steely Dan and the Eagles.

According to members of the band, they never set out to be rock stars – they are just a group of accomplished studio musicians who got together to make great music.

Atlanta Rhythm Section has released 15 albums, and some of their monumental hits include “Imaginary Lover,” “Spooky,” “Champagne Jam” and “So Into You.”
