FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TWO DEANS APPOINTED AT MCCC

MONROE, Mich. – Two deans have been appointed at Monroe County Community College – Dr. Paul Hedeem has been hired as dean of humanities/social sciences and Kimberly Lindquist has been named dean of health sciences/director of nursing.

Prior to joining the administrative team at MCCC, Hedeem was a full-time faculty member and coordinator of interdisciplinary studies at Wartburg College in Waverly, Iowa.

During his tenure at Wartburg, he served as chair of the English and Modern Languages Department. Hedeem was awarded a Fulbright grant and lectured in Ukraine. He has authored two books, co-edited two more and received numerous teaching awards and fellowships.

He holds three degrees in English. Hedeem earned a doctoral degree from Northwestern University, a master's degree from the University of Akron and a bachelor's degree from Kent State University.

Lindquist was originally hired by MCCC in 2011 as a full-time member of the nursing faculty.

Prior to that, she was employed for four years as a full-time, tenured faculty member at Henry Ford Community College where she taught Medical Surgical I and II courses, as well as Leadership/Management. She also served on the nursing evaluation committee.

Before joining the faculty at HFCC, Lindquist worked in acute care and as director of nursing at an extended care facility.

She is an alumnus of the MCCC nursing program and holds a bachelor's degree in nursing from Eastern Michigan University and a master's degree in nursing from the University of Toledo.

Lindquist is licensed to practice nursing in the Michigan and Ohio.
