MCCC OFFERS FOUR TAE KWON DO CLASSES, WOMEN'S SELF-DEFENSE SEMINAR

MONROE, Mich. – Monroe County Community College's Office of Lifelong Learning has scheduled four Tae Kwon Do classes and a Women's Self-Defense Seminar for the spring and summer.

The start dates for the Tae Kwon Do classes are April 25, May 23, June 18 and July 16. All sections will be held in the Welch Health Education Building, Room 139.

The cost per session is $49. Students registering for all sections during the spring semester in advance will receive $20 off the total cost. Ages 5 and up are welcome.

The Women's Self-Defense seminar will be held on May 21. It costs $29 and will be held from 7 to 9 p.m. in the Welch Health Education Building, Room 139. It will cover simple self-defense strategies designed to teach students how to protect themselves from attackers.

Techniques will include basic punches, kicks and strikes.

The classes and seminar will be taught by Mark Bergmooser, a certified fourth-degree black belt in Tae Kwon Do with more than 25 years of martial arts experience.

All participants are asked to come dressed in comfortable gym clothes and be prepared to go barefoot.
