GET WARMED UP FOR ST. PATRICK'S DAY WITH THE TARTAN TERRORS

'Pot O' Gold Package' Presented by MCCC Alumni Association

MONROE, Mich. – Looking to get your St. Patrick's Day festivities started early?

Monroe County Community College invites you to don your green attire and join fellow revelers for North America's premier Celtic Event, the Tartan Terrors, on March 8.

The show will take place at 7:30 p.m. in La-Z-Boy Center, Meyer Theater on MCCC's Main Campus.

The Tartan Terrors feature the blistering piping of a world-champion bagpiper, the driving tones of drums from around the world, and a guitar played unlike any Monroe has ever heard.

Combine this with championship-caliber Highland dancers and internationally recognized comedic performers, and this Celtic group goes far beyond the ordinary.

Members of the Tartan Terrors have performed for former President Bill Clinton, Queen Elizabeth II and a national television audience on ABC's "Good Morning America," and traversed the globe to be featured at some of the most prestigious festivals, Highland games and theatres.
