FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MCCC AWARDS THE ALTRUSA INTERNATIONAL OF MONROE SCHOLARSHIP

MONROE, Mich. – Monroe County Community College has awarded the Altrusa International of Monroe Scholarship to William Burrous of Monroe. The scholarship is to be used for tuition, books and fees.

Burrous is currently studying nursing at MCCC. He has volunteered a Monroe Trojan Camp wrestling coach, participated in Habitat for Humanity builds and organized car seat checks for the community with Safe Kids and the Taylor Fire Department. He and his wife, Jennifer, have two children, Aidan and Avery.

To be eligible for this scholarship, a student must present financial need, good academic service, past or present community service and reside in Monroe County. Additionally, the applicant must be seeking education in order to return to the workforce.

For more information on available scholarships and financial aid, please contact the MCCC Financial Aid Office at (734) 384-4135. If you are interested in information about funding a scholarship, contact The Foundation at MCCC at (734) 384-4206.
