Nyitray received his associate degree in 1989 from MCCC with the help of the Board of Trustee's Scholarship. When he graduated from high school, his family could not afford to send him to college, and he may not have been able to continue his education without the scholarship.

His scholarship donation to The Foundation is his way of giving back to the community and helping others to achieve their educational goals.

Higher education was the stepping stone to Nyitray's career in business and finance. After graduating from MCCC, he earned a bachelor of business administration in 1992 from Eastern Michigan University. In 2002, he earned a Chartered Financial Consultant designation from The American College.

Upon graduation from EMU, Nyitray obtained a position with MainStreet Financial Service/AXA Advisors and is now the senior partner. Nyitray is past president of the Milan Area Chamber of Commerce, past chairperson for the Milan Downtown Development Authority, a former board member for the Milan Community Foundation and a current board member of The Foundation at MCCC.

According to Nyitray, he had firsthand experience in observing the professionalism of the faculty when he was a student at MCCC. Now, as a board member of The Foundation at MCCC, he said he continues to witness the dedication of the administration, faculty and staff not only toward the student experience but also to the community as a whole.

Nyitray is a native of Ida and now resides in Lodi Township. His parents, Ed and Paula Nyitray, still reside in Ida. He has three children currently attending Saline Area Schools – Kara, 17, Lauren, 15, and Kyle, 12.
