FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

AREA RESIDENTS CAN MEET WITH NEW MCCC PRESIDENT DURING COUNTY ‘TOUR’

MONROE, Mich. – Residents across Monroe County will get the opportunity to meet with new Monroe County Community College President Dr. Kojo A. Quartey at one of the many stops on his “MCCC Presidential Listening Tour of Monroe County.”

Quartey, who became the fifth president of Monroe County Community College in August, will engage in direct conversations with residents to get a first-hand feel for what different areas of the county need in terms of services from the college.

There will be six stops on the tour, all at Monroe County Library System branches. Below are the dates and locations:

Each listening session will run from 6-7:30 p.m.

- Wednesday, Nov. 13: Ellis Library and Reference Center, 3700 South Custer Rd., Monroe
- Thursday, Nov. 14: Frenchtown-Dixie Branch Library, 2881 Nadeau Rd., Monroe
- Monday, Nov. 18: Bedford Branch Library, 8575 Jackman Rd., Temperance
- Thursday, Nov. 21: Dundee Branch Library, 144 E. Main St., Dundee
