FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MCCC TO HONOR DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING JR. WITH DIVERSITY FAIR, SEMINAR

MONROE, Mich. – Monroe County Community College will celebrate the life of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and his contributions to racial justice and equality with a daytime diversity fair followed by an evening seminar on the topics of welfare reform, immigration and the LGBT (lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender) community.

The events, sponsored by the MCCC Diversity Committee, will take place on the Main Campus on Dr. Martin Luther King Day, which is Jan. 20. They are free and open to the public.

The diversity fair will be held from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. in the Warrick Student Services/Administration Building. Information tables in the hallway near the Office of Admissions and Guidance will cover diversity issues such as race, age, gender, height/weight and sexual orientation. Numerous MCCC student clubs and local organizations will be represented.

From 7-8:30 p.m., the seminar, entitled “A Quest for Justice,” will be held in the La-Z-Boy Center Atrium. The featured guests for each topic include:

- Welfare reform: Dr. Marci Ybarra, assistant professor, University of Chicago School of Service Administration
- Immigration: Dr. Joanna Sabo, professor of political science at MCCC

(more)

- LBGT community: Dr. Melissa Grey, assistant professor of psychology at MCCC
