MCCC TO HOST ‘WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT NATIVE AMERICANS’ PANEL DISCUSSION

MONROE, Mich. – In honor of Native American Heritage Month, Monroe County Community College will host a panel discussion – “What You Should Know about Native Americans” – on Friday, Nov. 22 at 6:30 p.m.

The panel discussion will take place in Room 173ab of the Warrick Student Services/Administration Building on the Main Campus.

MCCC President Dr. Kojo Quartey will moderate this timely discussion with local Native American leaders. It will cover Native American history and current events.

Earlier this month, MCCC hosted a panel discussion on Native American names and mascots in sports, a topic that has escalated into a national debate, most recently concerning the NFL’s Washington Redskins franchise.

The Main Campus is located at 1555 S. Raisinville Rd.in Monroe.

The event is free and open to the public.
