FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PAUL W. SMITH TO HOST SHOW, LIVE FROM MCCC

MONROE, Mich. – On Friday, nationally known WJR-AM (760) radio anchor, and Monroe native, Paul W. Smith will broadcast a special edition of his morning news and talk show from Monroe County Community College.

The live broadcast will originate from the La-Z-Boy Center, Meyer Theater and run from 6-9 a.m. The event is free and open to the public.

The special broadcast of The Paul W. Smith Show – which is being sponsored by Monroe County Community College, DTE Energy, La-Z-Boy Incorporated, Mercy Memorial Hospital System, Monroe County Intermediate School District, and Monroe Bank & Trust – will focus on happenings in Monroe County.

Smith will interview MCCC President Dr. Kojo Quartey and Monroe County Intermediate School District superintendent Dr. Donald Spencer. Dr. Quartey will discuss the many partnerships with the MCISD and will announce plans to celebrate MCCC's 50th Anniversary with an all-ages, community-wide festival on June 21.

In addition to Quartey and Spencer, the following community leaders will be interviewed: Doug Chaffin, president and CEO of Monroe Bank & Trust; Annette Phillips, president and CEO of Mercy Memorial Hospital System; Susan Vanisacker, director of organizational effectiveness and community
