FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MCCC TO PRESENT ‘SAFETY TRAINING DAY’ MARCH 5

MONROE, Mich. – The Monroe County Community College Division of Corporate and Community Services will present “Safety Training Day” on Wednesday, March 5.

Safety Training Day, which will be held in the La-Z-Boy Center from 8 a.m-4 p.m., is a partnership among MCCC, FRG Corp., Daly Meritt Inc. and the Michigan Occupational Safety and Health Administration (MIOSHA).

It will include four, 75-minute safety training sessions on pertinent safety topics for business and industry, including one presented by MIOSHA titled “When MIOSHA Visits.” MIOSHA will also be the featured speaker during lunch.

Those who would benefit from Safety Training Day include safety and human resources managers, business owners, supervisors and anyone responsible for organizational safety.

Participants will be able to attend either of the following tracks:

- Track 1: When MIOSHA Visits, Slip and Fall, Arc Flash, Crane Safety
- Track 2: When MIOSHA Visits, Confined Space, Workers’ Compensation, HAZWOPER (Hazardous Waste Operations and Emergency Response).

(more)

The cost is $49 per person and includes lunch and refreshments. Continuing Education Units will be awarded.

For information or to register, contact the Division of Corporate and Community Services at (734) 384-4127.
