FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MCCC AWARDS THE WILLIAM J. & JENNIE E. BACARELLA SCHOLARSHIP

MONROE, Mich. – Monroe County Community College has awarded the William J. and Jennie E. Bacarella Scholarship to Carrie DeLucia of Dundee. The scholarship is to be used for tuition, books, and fees.

DeLucia, is a 2001 graduate of SMCC High School. She will be studying Business Management at MCCC. She is active in Heartbeat of Monroe and the Ida Light Parade. She and her husband, Laurence, have one daughter, Anna and another on the way.

To be eligible for this scholarship, a student must be majoring in a business-related curriculum, maintain part-time enrollment status of six credit hours or more, and be a resident of Monroe County. In addition, the donor prefers non-traditional students and graduates of St. Mary Catholic Central High School.

For more information on available scholarships and financial aid, please contact the MCCC Financial Aid Office at (734) 384-4135. If you are interested in information about funding a scholarship, contact The Foundation at MCCC at (734) 384-4206.
