FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MCCC TO HOLD PANEL DISCUSSION ON HUMAN TRAFFICKING

MONROE, Mich. – Monroe County Community College will host a panel discussion on human trafficking from 12:30-1:30 p.m. on Oct. 21 in Room A-173ab of the Audrey M. Warrick Student Services/Administration Building.

The discussion, entitled “The Horrors of Human Trafficking” is free and open to the public. The panel aims to build awareness of human trafficking and anti-trafficking strategies in Michigan. It is part of the Diversity and Current Affairs Speakers Series sponsored by MCCC.

Panelists will include Crystal Martin, executive director, Family Counseling & Shelter Services; Nicole McGee, FBI victim specialist; Vivian Walczesky, governor elect, Soroptimist Monroe and member of the MCCC Alumni Association Board of Directors; and U.S. Rep Tim Walberg.

For more information regarding the Diversity and Current Affairs Series at MCCC, contact Molly McCutchan, director of human resources, at (734) 384-4245 or mmccutchan@monroecc.edu.

The Diversity and Current Affairs Speakers Series features MCCC faculty, staff, students and alumni, as well as community members, with expertise on a variety of cultural, political or social topics of importance and interest at the present time.
