FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SOCIAL EQUALITY CLUB TO HOST PRESENTATION BY ARTS EDITOR OF WORLD SOCIALIST WEBSITE

MONROE, Mich. – Monroe County Community College’s International Youth and Students for Social Equality Club will sponsor a presentation by David Walsh, arts editor of the World Socialist Website and author of the recently released book “The Sky Between the Leaves: Film Reviews, Essays and Interviews” on Wednesday at 5:30 p.m.

The presentation will take place in the Little Theatre (Room C-3) of the Campbell Learning Resource Center. MCCC’s Main Campus is located at 1555 S. Raisinville Rd. in Monroe.

Walsh will address the impact of the House of UnAmerican Activities Committee on filmmaking in general and on film noir.

The presentation is free and open to the public.

The International Youth and Students for Social Equality Club at MCCC promotes the Socialist Equality Party as the political organization best representing the interests of students and workers, to further a scientific conception of human society, and to organize students in solidarity with the working class in common defense of education, jobs and social programs. Their advisor is MCCC Professor of English Terry Telfer.
