FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MCCC TO HONOR DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING JR. WITH MARCH, DIVERSITY FAIR

MONROE, Mich. – Monroe County Community College will celebrate the life of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and his contributions to racial justice and equality with a demonstration/march followed by the college's annual Diversity Fair.

The events, sponsored by the MCCC Diversity Committee, will take place on the Main Campus on Dr. Martin Luther King Day, which is Jan. 19. They are free and open to the public.

The "We Shall Overcome" demonstration/March will begin at 11:15 a.m. in front of the Career Technology Center.

The Diversity Fair will be held from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. in the Warrick Student Services/Administration Building. Information on various dimensions of diversity will be showcased. Several MCCC student clubs will be represented, as well as Islamic, Native American and African American cultures. International desserts will also be served.

For more information, contact Molly McCutchan, director of human resources, at (734) 384-4245 or mmccutchan@monroecc.edu.
