FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MCCC TO HOST PANEL DISCUSSION ON RACE RELATIONS

Members of Community Invited to Serve on Panel

MONROE, Mich. – Monroe County Community College will host a panel discussion on race relations on April 6 from noon-1 p.m. in the Dining Room of the Audrey M. Warrick Student Services/Administration Building.

The presentation, entitled “An Honest Community Conversation about Race Relations,” is free and open to the public. It will be hosted by MCCC President Dr. Kojo A. Quartey.

The topic of race relations has been prominent in the national headlines of late due to recent events in Ferguson, Mo. and Madison, Wisc., as well as at the University of Oklahoma and the University of Virginia.

The college is inviting members of the community to serve on the panel. Those interested should contact the Office of the President at (734) 384-4311.

The panel discussion is part of the Culture and Current Affairs Speakers Series sponsored by MCCC, which features MCCC faculty, staff, students and alumni with expertise on a variety of cultural, political or social topics of importance and interest at the present time.
