Press Release

Stiltner, of Monroe, is a 2003 graduate of Jefferson High School and is currently studying CIS: Information Assurance and Security at MCCC. He is a member of Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society and the LAN CLUB. He was on the Dean's List for Fall 2014 and Winter 2015. He is the son of Steven Stiltner and Marlene Stiltner.

Slayton, of Dundee, is a 2000 graduate of Calvary Christian Academy and is currently studying Nursing at MCCC. She was class Valedictorian and is currently a homeschooling co-op teacher of drama, choir, and gym. She is also a Soccer coach and Basketball coach. She is currently on the Deans list at MCCC. Slayton is married to Nicholas Slayton and has three daughters, Emily, Kaitlyn, and Hayley.

The Elizabeth and Samuel Campbell Memorial Scholarship was established by MCCC President Emeritus Dr. Ronald Campbell and his sister, Rebecca Campbell Sandretto, to honor their parents' drive for their children to pursue a college degree. Samuel Campbell was a journeyman tool and die maker and Elizabeth was a homemaker. Although neither attended college, they valued education and encouraged their children to do so.

To be eligible the student must demonstrate academic excellence and have financial need.
