FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MCCC AWARDS THE MONROE COUNTY EXCHANGE CLUB SCHOLARSHIP

MONROE, Mich. – Monroe County Community College has awarded the Monroe County Exchange Club Scholarship to Joshua Cooley. The scholarship is to be used for tuition, books, and fees.

Cooley, of Monroe, has already received his Associates of Science degree and has been accepted into the Nursing Program at MCCC. He has volunteered for Habitat for Humanity. He is the son of Robert and Karen Cooley and his children are Keylee and Liam Cooley.

To be eligible for this scholarship, a student must be a resident of Monroe County, and a graduate of Ida High School, Jefferson High School, Monroe High School, or St. Mary Catholic Central High School.

Additional consideration will be given to students with financial need and student participants of the Monroe Exchange Club Junior Exchange Program. For more information on available scholarships and financial aid, please contact the MCCC Financial Aid Office at (734) 384-4135. If you are interested in information about funding a scholarship, contact The Foundation at MCCC at (734) 384-4214.
