FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MCCC AWARDS THE MARY MOSINGO COBB MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

MONROE, Mich. – Monroe County Community College has awarded the Mary Mosingo Cobb Memorial Scholarship to Breanna Dailey. The scholarship is to be used for tuition.

Dailey, of Petersburg, is a 2009 Dundee High School graduate pursuing a career in Early Childhood Development while attending MCCC. She served as a leader at Camp Storer for 6th graders, spent six months at Reggio Emilia School, volunteered at Smith Road Elementary Head Start Program and the Bedford Community Center. She is the daughter of David and Bernadette Dailey.

To be eligible for this scholarship, a student must be enrolled in the Early Childhood Development program at MCCC, maintain at least part-time enrollment, have a 3.0 GPA or higher, be a Monroe County, Michigan, resident and be currently involved in community service.

For more information on available scholarships and financial aid, please contact the MCCC Financial Aid Office at (734) 384-4135. If you are interested in information about funding a scholarship, contact The Foundation at MCCC at (734) 384-4214.
