RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR AWARDING
WRITING FELLOW SCHOLARSHIPS

   The following regulations are submitted as guidelines for the distribution of the above-named scholarships at Monroe County Community College.

CRITERIA FOR AWARDING WRITING-ACROSS-THE-CURRICULUM SCHOLARSHIPS

1. The recipient must be nominated by a member of the MCCC faculty or the WAC Coordinator.

2. The recipient must demonstrate proficiency in written language by submitting a personal narrative detailing reasons he or she wants to be a Writing Fellow.

3. The recipient must interview with the WAC Coordinator.

4. The recipient must make a commitment to work in The Writing Center two hours per week and be assigned to fellow one course per semester.

5. The recipient must have successfully completed English 151.

6. The recipient must maintain a GPA of 3.0 or higher. (May be waived by WAC Coordinator.)

7. The recipient must enroll in 254 Advanced Composition and successfully complete the requirements of the course.

8. Upon completion of 254 Advanced Composition, with the WAC Coordinator's approval and depending on the need, the scholarship may be renewed each semester.

9. The initial scholarship will include the tuition cost of the English 254 course and one hundred fifty dollars ($150.00) toward textbooks and supplies. This fee waiver cannot be used for anything other than tuition costs, books, or supplies.

10. The renewable scholarship will include the tuition cost and fees for any three (3) credit hour course offered by MCCC and two hundred dollars ($200.00) toward textbooks and supplies. Continuing Education courses may be taken by those students not enrolled in credit classes. The fee waiver cannot be used for anything other than tuition costs, books, or supplies. Auditing is permissible.

11. Students already on scholarship will be allowed to use this WAC scholarship for the purchase of books and supplies.

12. Notification of scholarship winners will be made by the Academic Dean to the office of Financial Aid.
