Subject: Trouble with Subject
Location: Parking Lot #1
Witness:
Victim:
Complainant:
Suspect:
Narrative:
Residence:

The switchboard advised writer of a fight occurring in the parking lot in front of "H" building.

Writer responded and noted that complainant had a mini-van stopped near the exit. She advised that she observed suspect punch victim in the jaw and knock her to the ground. Writer observed suspect in the driver seat, witness in the front seat and victim in the back. All were asked to exit.

Victim was crying but said she was "okay." She indicated that she and her brother were wrestling. She accidentally hit him then he lost his temper and hit her much harder.

Suspect agreed, but said victim hit him harder than she admitted.

Witness indicated the pair are twins who argue and scrap all of the time. They were at MCCC for a bus drop off from Ida Schools. She advised the victim had been on Aderall, but not anymore. Writer noted that suspect seemed to be emotionless and almost smug throughout the encounter.

Writer advised that MCCC property was not a place to wrestle, fight, etc. and that if they couldn't abide by certain standards of conduct they would have to find an alternate mode of transportation.

All left in the mini-van.

Status: Writer requests that dayshift forward this to Ida Schools as an FYI.
