

Contact:

Joe Verkennes
Director of Marketing
(734) 384-4207

TWENTIETH ANNIVERSARY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

THE FOUNDATION AT MCCC AWARDS THE GEORGE RHODES SCHOLARSHIP

MONROE, Mich. – The Foundation at Monroe County Community College has awarded the George Rhodes Scholarship to Brooke Lambrix. The $250 scholarship is to be used for tuition, fees, supplies and books.

Lambrix of South Rockwood is a 2007 graduate of Jefferson High School.

Lambrix is studying nursing while attending MCCC. She has been a Writing Fellow at MCCC for two consecutive semesters. She is the wife of Ben Lambrix and mother of Peyton Lambrix.

To be eligible for this scholarship, a student must maintain part-time enrollment (enrolled in 6 credit hours) during the scholarship year and maintain a 3.0 GPA. The student must have worked at least one semester in a tutoring program recognized by the Learning Assistance Lab or an academic division at MCCC and remain active in the tutoring program during the scholarship year.

For more information on available scholarships and financial aid, please contact the MCCC Financial Aid Office at (734) 384-4135. If you are interested in information about funding a scholarship, contact The Foundation at MCCC at (734) 384-4214.

###